

MAY DAY BOMB MAKERS REPORTED UNDER ARREST

Chicago Tribune Prints Story That the Military Authorities Have Perpetrators in Custody

Story is Partly Confirmed by Military Officers Many Others Wanted

(By United Press)
Chicago, Oct. 14.—The maker of thirty-six bombs mailed to leading business men and officials throughout the country last May is held by military authorities at Gary according to a story printed by the Chicago Tribune today.

No confirmation was obtained from Col. Mapes, commander, at Gary. Many men wanted in connection with the plot are still at large according to the article and no announcement of these arrests will be made until they are able to apprehend all suspects.

"Gun cotton and other explosives used in making the bombs were obtained from the Aetna Powder Works about three miles from Gary, which has been closed since the armistice was signed," the Tribune said.

Department of justice agents watched the plant closely and recently the alleged bomb maker returned for additional explosives. He was followed to his home and in a raid sufficient evidence was secured. He made a bomb and threw it in the doorway of the home of Atty. General Palmer.

The authorities are now attempting to locate a Chicago Red who carried a bomb from Gary to New York.

Gary, Oct. 14.—Army officers here said today there was small chance of rounding up the entire band of bomb suspects, believed to have made Gary their headquarters. Army men refuse further information than stating they believe some of the plotters are under arrest.

Gary, Ind., Oct. 14.—Army intelligence officers, under direction of Col. W. Mapes, were making every effort to locate the printing shop which turned out the hand bills signed by "The Communist Party of America," calling for an overthrow of military rule in Gary.

All printing offices of the city were visited during the night, but the source of the proclamation was not discovered. Col. Mapes did not believe it was issued with the authority of the committee in charge of the strike.

"This is the hour to rouse the workers," the hand bills declared. "The workers must capture the power of the state."

Salvation Army On Good Will Mission

(By United Press)
Berlin (By Mail).—The Salvation Army—that institution which many an American doughboy will remember kindly through the years—has started a campaign based on Central Europe's looking toward creation with more of the spirit of "peace on earth, good will to men."

Headquarters of the organization, maintained here during the war, but unable to operate extensively because of its allied connections, has reopened fully and has begun the task of establishing branches in Prague, Vienna, Budapest and throughout the Balkans.

Col. Treite, in charge of the local headquarters, declared it will be the aim of the central European campaign to offer solace to these troubled nations through calming their spirits and their lives. The army will work to wipe out hatreds engendered during the war, and to revive friendly intercourse, he said.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Coal miners who are threatening to strike were warned that their contract with the government is binding and should be fulfilled, said Senator Freilighuysen of New York, chairman of the senate committee investigating the coal situation. No action will be taken by the senate until Secretary of Labor Wilson fails to prevent the strike set for Nov. 1, it was stated.

Report Wilson's Condition Good

Although He Did Not Have a Restful Night, According to Bulletin Issued

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Wilson's condition this morning was good although he did not have a restful night according to a statement issued by his physicians at 12:25 today. The statement said:

"The president did not have a restful night last night but his restlessness was caused by the swelling of a prostate gland, a condition from which he has suffered in the past, and which has been more or less intensified by lying in bed. As noted yesterday his temperature, pulse, respiration, heart action and blood pressure are normal."

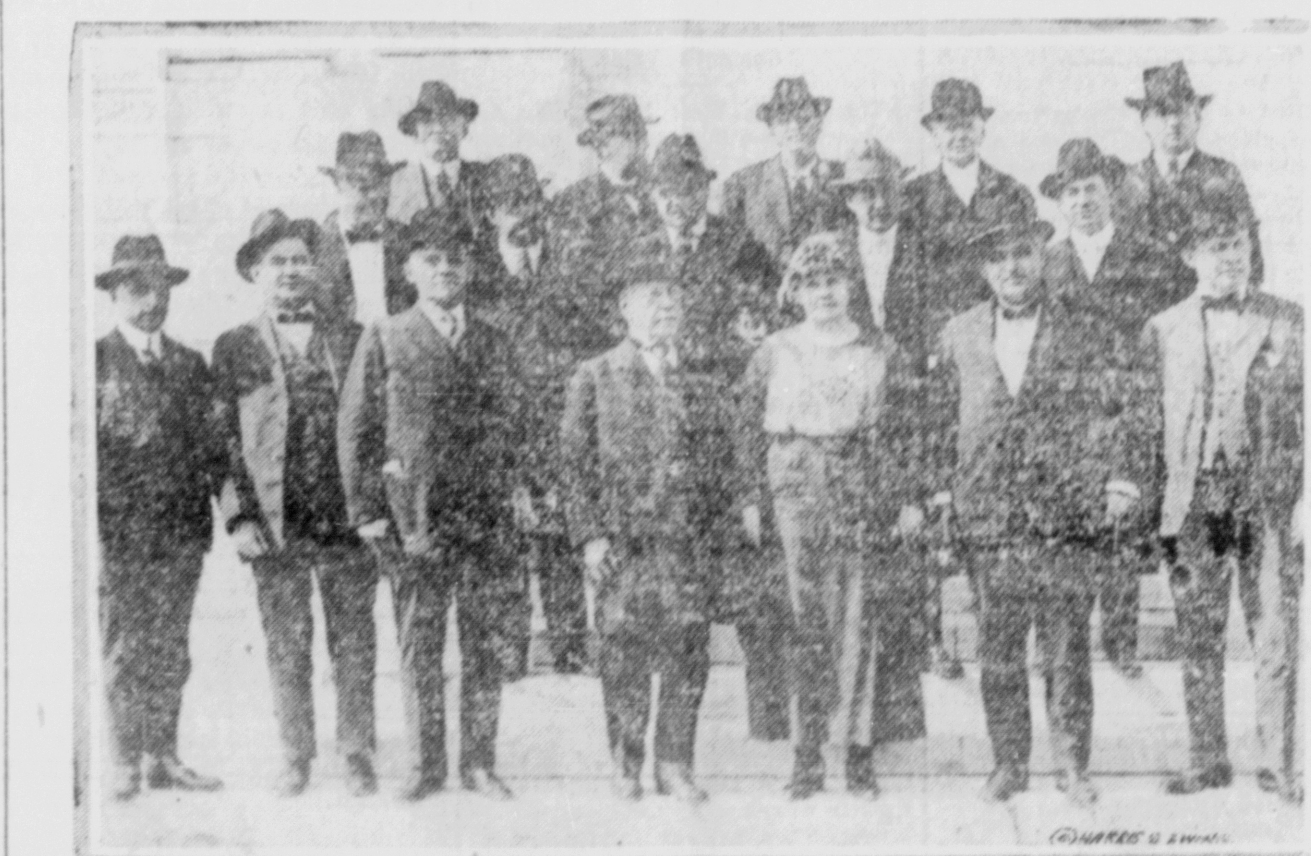

The statement was signed by Drs. Grayson, Ruffin and Stitt. A specialist may be called in to consult regarding the swelling of the gland.

Vote Being Taken to End Strike

(By United Press)

New York, Oct. 14.—Voting was in progress today in 54 local unions here affiliated with the international longshoremen's union on the question of ending or continuing the strike of 11,000 dock workers, which has paralyzed shipping in the ports of New York for six days. Last night 3,000 strikers voted not to go back to work until their grievances had been adjusted. This did not represent the sentiment of the strikers according to the opinion of J. Riley, chairman of the strikers' committee.

RALPH COUCH,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Oct. 14.—The central committee of the industrial conference today reported to the full conference without recommending the resolution calling for mediation of the steel strike. The resolution was offered by the labor group.

Agree on Sympathy for President

"Chairman Chadbourne of the central committee, in making the report announced that the resolution had been amended in the committee to provide that the membership of the proposed mediator committee be composed of either members of the present conference or non-members."

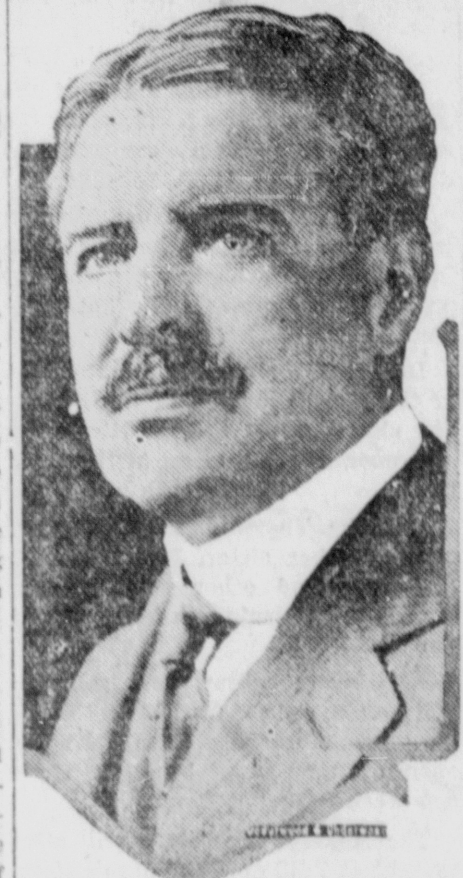

He said that a majority of two groups in the committee had voted against recommending the adoption of the resolution. A majority of all members of the committee had voted to report the resolution without recommendation. The conference today adopted a resolution expressing sympathy with President Wilson in his illness. This was the first measure on which the conference voted by groups. The chairmen of all three groups voted "aye." The resolution was introduced by the employers group.

Washington, Oct. 14.—A fight on the labor groups' resolution for mediation of the steel strike was before the afternoon session of the industrial conference today. Adjournment was taken at 12:30 for lunch, after motion to refer the resolution back to the big committee had been debated by a unanimous vote of the three groups, labor, capital and the public.

There were rumors during the lunch period that labor was prepared to quit the conference in case the resolution was voted down this afternoon. No members of the American Federation of Labor were willing to confirm this.

Lodge Warns Against Japs

Says Japs Intend to Exploit China Using China's Man Power for Military Purposes

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 14.—"A warning that unless a very superior navy is maintained in the Pacific, the United States may some day take the place of France in another great war to preserve civilization," Senator Henry Cabot Lodge today urged that nothing be done to increase the strength of Japan.

"Japan intends to exploit China and make herself a powerful nation that will threaten the safety of the world," he charged, in protesting against the Shantung settlement in the peace treaty.

"The case seems so complete that it is impossible to see how any good American can consent to that which will add to the power of such a nation as Japan."

"Japan is steeped in German ideas. She means to exploit China, and build until she becomes a great power. She will use the man power of China for military purposes."

"It seems incredible that senators cannot understand this sufficiently and leave Japan to become a peril to America."

Rooster Stops Wild Volcano

(By United Press)

Hilo, Island of Hawaii, (By Mail).—Owners of coal black game cocks are keeping out an eye to see that the chicken house door is locked securely every night.

And that's all because the volcano of Kilauea is now the most active it has been for 35 years.

Six months ago Kilauea was sputtering away in its mile wide bowl of burning molten rock, with the level of the flaming crimson sea of boiling lava 500 feet from the top of the crater.

The night that Secretary of the Navy Daniels and his party paid Kilauea a visit—the latter part of August—the level of the seething lava lake was about 50 feet below the crater's top.

Several overflows already have occurred. A cone which once jutted 500 feet above the crater's top, has melted away into the sea. Two hours after the Secretary and his party left the volcano (the rock between the main crater and a second smaller one, caved in, joining the craters.

And Kilauea still is going strong. As to the connection of all this with coal black game cocks? Oh, first were becoming a white man's that's very simple.

Many years ago, when the islands land, Kilauea became angry. It roared and hissed and sputtered and the ground shook. Then the lava overflowed and moved slowly down the mountain side toward Hilo.

The native Hawaiians had been Christians but a comparatively short time. Their fright knew no bounds, for the island legends were full of tales of what Kilauea did when Madame Pele, the goddess who lived in Kilauea's crater, became angry.

So the Hawaiians prayed that the flow would stop. But it didn't.

Then they danced. But that was ineffective.

Finally, forgetting their Christianity for a time, they sent a party by canoe to Honolulu to consult a few remaining priests of the days when they all worshipped the strange, South Sea deities.

"Throw a black rooster into the lava flow," was the advice they brought back.

The sleekest, shiniest cock on the island of Hawaii was picked for the sacrifice, and while the maidens danced, the warriors cast the squawking bird into the base of the lava flow.

In an hour the flow had stopped. Madame Pele, the most feared goddess of the island, evidently had been satisfied with a chicken dinner.

American residents of the island believe that if there is ever another lava flow, coal black roosters will once more be demanded.

Savages' Salt.

From time immemorial savage man has extracted salt from ocean water by evaporating it in pools, and distant island tribes have journeyed far to trade with him for it. The salt works that are in operation in Rizal province of the Philippine islands have been worked for centuries, at first in a very crude way by allowing ocean water at high tide to flood a slight natural depression and then roughly damming the narrow neck where the overflow occurred to keep out succeeding tides until the water in the "pan" dried up. This left a mass of muddy salt crystals, which were scooped out with coconut and calabash shells; and then the process was repeated.

Letts Continue to Hold Riga Against German Russian Armies

By CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Oct. 13 (Delayed).—The allies have proposed an international blockade against Soviet Russia. The suggestion was made to Germany today in a note which also was addressed to Austria and neutral countries.

The note's receipt here followed the allies' most recent note to Germany defining their attitude toward the Baltic situation and the presence of Von der Goltz troops.

The communication proposing the blockade on the Baltic Russia asked what measure Germany was prepared to take in assisting the movement. At first it was officially stated here today Germany was willing to co-operate but was incapable of extensive measures.

The feeling later, however, as expressed by responsible authorities, was that Germany wanted to decline as a matter of principle. It was stated that Germany likely would reply that she could not be a party to actions that would result in a starvation blockade as she had been made to suffer.

It was learned that Germany might suggest an international court to seek a course in harmony with "the spirit of the league of nations."

Berlin, Oct. 13 (Delayed).—The allies latest answer to the German note with regard to the Baltic situation has lessened the tension in Germany. While the allied attitude was firm, the Germans considered it was friendly, and did not expect the blockade would be renewed. The first indications were that Germany would do and say what was possible to meet the entente suggestion of a blockade against Russia, but it was feared, as voiced by responsible authority, that Germany wanted to decline the suggestion as a matter of principle, inasmuch as she herself had suffered by an imposed blockade.

(By United Press)
London, Oct. 14.—Lettish troops are still holding Riga in the most recent fight to be reported in a dispatch received here today. They are said to have held the city when Germans failed repeatedly to cross the Dvina river into the city proper. Opposite Riga the Germans hoisted a white flag Sunday but the Letts did not heed the truce offered but continued fighting.

Dispatches described the Lett's morale as being of the highest character. Their government has been moved to Wenden, fifty miles north-east of Riga. Allied cruisers are aiding in the defense of Riga according to Lettish communications.

Very Latest In Hospitals

(By United Press)

Bucharest (By Mail).—Both Roumanian and Hungarian wounded in the recent fighting around Budapest have been treated in an American "Mobile Hospital" of the most modern type—the last word in war hospitals for use in the field with a rapidly moving army.

The type of mobile hospital being used is that known as the "Autochir." It is a hospital on wheels—eighteen huge automobile trucks equipped with everything needed for war-time medicine and surgery. There are automobile operating rooms, automobile sterilizing equipment, an automobile laboratory, a pure-water machine with ice-making attachment, an X-ray car, electric light plant, steam heating plant, a blacksmith's repair shop, and a complete tent hospital which can be set up anywhere in about two hours so as to accommodate more than 400 wounded men.

Dust to Check Explosions.
Perhaps the oddest, yet one of the most effective, means for preventing—or, at all events, minimizing—disasters in coal mines is the use of rock dust. A lot of it is placed on boards hung by chains from the roofs of mine tunnels. Obviously in case of an explosion the boards will swing and the dust will be thrown off. Following an explosion a roaring flame, let us say, is coming through the tunnel. The air is filled with coal dust (or possibly with inflammable gas) to feed it. But it meets a curtain of non-inflammable rock dust (discharged from the board shelves) and is thereby stopped. Rock dust will not burn under any provocation. Suspended thickly in the air, it acts like an asbestos curtain. The flames cannot get through it.

HARRY GILLMAN
Harry Gillman lived in Belgium in 1914. With his father's revolver, he managed to kill three German officers in the party which shot his father and mother. For this deed he was arrested and placed in a German prison camp. After six months' confinement he escaped and made his way to a detachment of British cavalry, with which outfit he remained for two years. In 1917, when the Second division of the American army came upon the scene, he joined in with the "Devil Dogs." He was wounded at Chateau Thierry and Belleau Wood and gassed in the Argonne. He is shown on his arrival at New York aboard the Chicago.

GOLDEN HOURS NEVER FOUND
Stories of Vast Wealth Hidden in West Indies May Be Merely Romantic Tales.
The British West Indies may not be worth much in money, but they are rich in money tradition. It was the lure of these islands that brought the avaricious gold hunters of Columbus, way across the seas in search of the fabled wealth of the western isles. It was here that the brave British admiral went to "sing the king of Spain's beard."
Stories of sunken money-ships and buried treasures in and around the islands are numerous. Capt. Kidd, Morgan and many other famous buccaners made the islands their rendezvous. Sir Walter Raleigh went there and so did the ill fated Darien.
In later years the islands were fought over by the Spanish, British, Dutch and French. The latter were supposed to be very rich, but when the British drove them from the island they were unable to find the hidden gold.
An old negress once told a story that renewed interest in this fabled French wealth. An old man approached her, she said, and asked directions to the grave of her mistress' youngest child. She told him and the man dug up the coffin. He opened it and took out three of four handfuls of jewels. He disappeared, after saying that he was a grandson of one of the old French pirates, who had concealed the jewels.

The movement of the boiler causes a violent agitation of the water in the form of a figure 8. In this way, forcing the water through the fabric cleansing thoroughly and quickly.
The movement of the boiler and the heat under it, form a forceful vacuum and steam action, hastening the cleansing process, sterilizing the clothes at the same time.

WOMAN'S REALM

The Simply Awful
Price of Clothes

By MARGARET ROHE
(Written for the United Press)

I care not if potatoes cost
A figure fiercely high
That butter, beef and other foods
Most folks can scarcely buy
For I must diet anyway.
With me the vital issue
Is rolling, rubbing, starving off
Excessive fatty tissue
But when it comes to things to wear
Believe me then I sure should care
It's got me worried, goodness knows
The simply awful price of clothes!

New York, Oct. 14.—"My dear, that coat is perfect on you." "Dearie, that hat was just made for your eyes." "My dear, this suit is just your style"—thus do the less haughty sales ladies affectionately foist their wares on guileless shoppers.

Little Harold, that precocious 1919 model child, on an enforced shopping tour with his maternal parent, lost not one of these endearing appellations.

"Mother," he demanded sapiently, "do they all dear you because everything's dear now?"

And thus you see the high cost of clothing stands convicted out of the mouths of babes.

Positively it would be tragic if it were not so ridiculous—the price tags dangling from this season's coats and frocks and suits.

Do you remember in the good old days how a fifty-dollar bill was considered quite some outlay and the gown or suit it purchased was of excellent material, lines and style? What fifty dollars will buy today looks like something le chat emportait chez-il.

Sixty-nine, seventy-five and eighty dollars are average prices for conservative little dresses of serge, tricotine, gabardine, satin, taffeta, georgette or velveteen. Anything the least out of the ordinary, exclusive or Frenchy immediately leaps into the hundred class and even trotteurs of cloth, be they the least bit original and distinctive, range from $110 to $125 and $150 with the easy speed of an express elevator going up.

As for suits, without exaggeration, even in shoddy materials and cheapest grade furs, there are no fur-trimmed suits under a hundred dollars. When they are of peach-bloom, duveltyne and others of the exquisite new materials with beaver, mink, nutria or squirrel trimmings range from $250 to $450 with the greatest of ease and abandon.

You can pick out a sort of rough and ready sport coat for around $75 or $80, but let anything in evora duveltyne or casimeretina swathe you round your figure, and even thought it isn't of the fur-bearing species in round figures it will bring around one hundred and fifty round dollars.

The beautiful befurred models of newest rich weaves belong to the exclusive four hundred, to judge by their price tags and with shoes soaring to fifteen and twenty dollars. What's worse we can't even afford to kick about it for fear of wearing out our precious shoe leather.

The strange part of it all is that never fabrics and furs and fol-de-las been more lavishly and extravagantly exquisite than right this minute. The wonderful Lyons velvets brocaded in metal, the metallic tissues and brocades, the velvets, duveltynes and peltry's smack of the glories of the renaissance the same time they take a wallop at your bank roll.

Somehow or other I can't quite see how the league of nations can successfully put over its equality for all nations as long as the high cost of clothing means so little to the change purse of a potentate and so much to the pocketbook of an American.

Johnson-Swelland

The marriage of Miss Mabel E. Johnson and Lars Swelland took place this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Swedish Lutheran church, Rev. Eiof Carlson officiating.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Hugo L. Sundberg.

The bride was attired in a dark blue suit and hat to match and wore a corsage bouquet of white roses.

A wedding dinner was served to the immediate relatives.

After a short trip to Des Moines, Iowa, the young couple will make their home in Brainerd.

Swift-Hill

An unusually interesting wedding service took place in the First Congregational church on Saturday evening, Oct. 11, when Walter E. Swift and Edith Hill were joined in marriage. The church had been decorated for Rally Day and the center of the decoration was Old Glory. The pastor invited the young couple to step up near the flag and the bridegroom who had seen 11 months of service in France was started on the long, long trail of married life while standing almost under the folds of the flag under which he served. The bride was attractive and was becomingly dressed in white. The young couple were accompanied in the service by Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Swift, brother and sister of the bridegroom. Rev. Fred Errington of the First Congregational church read the service.

Drama League Meeting

The Drama League held its first meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Courtney. Twenty ladies were present, all of whom appeared to be enthusiastic and eager to begin the year's work.

After a short business meeting and the reading of the program for the year, Mrs. W. P. Jewett, of Brooklyn, gave a very vivid description of "The Miracle Man," and at the close made the surprising announcement that the first time this thrilling picture would be shown outside of New York would be in Brainerd.

This brought forth general commendation of Manager F. S. Workman's enterprise, and the question of appointing a committee to find out just what dramas were booked for the year with the idea of giving hearty support to the deserving ones, was discussed but was left over for the next meeting.

Light refreshments were served by the program committee.

Hall's Family Pills for constipation. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than in all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

TO DARKEN HAIR
APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

"THE MIRACLE MAN" COMING AT "PARK"

A Story of Flesh, Blood and Soul, That Will Live Forever in Your Heart

SCENES OF THE UNDERWORLD

A Vivid Vital Drama of Human Hearts—Every Scene Carries a Smile and Thrill

A masterpiece in motion drama is booked for the new Park theatre early the week of Oct. 19th, being no other than the metropolitan success of "The Miracle Man."

A picture so remarkable that it will claim your attention from start to finish through eight reels and when the end comes you will regretfully relinquish your seat half wishing for more.

In that eight reels are crowded more roguery, more struggling, more loving, more achieving, more humor, more thrills than has ever been the lot of man to see since the big things in the film world were produced.

The motif is that faith makes one whole. The idea of this all consuming faith was exemplified in "Turn to the Right," again a touch of it
"In the Passing of the Third Floor Back."

In the healing of the sick, the mained and withered, the calming of tempestuous tempers, angry hearts, the rejuvenation of the wayward girl one gains that flash of what the Great Master accomplished.

It is a story of flesh, blood and soul, that will live forever in your heart. When the pack of rogues leaves New York and descends upon the Patriarch, proceeding to capitalize and commercialize his powers of healing, they find it necessary in order to gain their points to live upright lives. Their contact with faith produces a state of unrest in their mentality, which unfolds itself into numberless scenes and complications.

Manager F. S. Workman had a first-run of the picture early Monday morning and those privileged to see it pronounced it the most wonderful screen offering in years. Every scene was a smile, a thrill, or a clutch at your heart.

future for Louisiana to have charge hundred feet below surface and in some cases beds 1700 feet thick have have been at one time an old bed of

ROLL OF HONOR

Albert Schmidt arrived home Saturday after spending fourteen months in France and Germany. Most of the time he was a motorcycle dispatch bearer, and he had some exciting experiences. He brought home a good many souvenirs, among which was a German officer's field glass, used in directing artillery fire.
An idea of the strength of the glass may be gained when it is stated that from the top of the school house here in Pequot it was possible to see a flock of ducks over Loon lake, six miles distant, and to tell what kind they were.—Pequot Review.

ANNUAL MISSION FESTIVAL SUNDAY

cal Church, Corner Main and Bluff, On Sunday

TWO SERVICES TO BE HELD

Meeting in German, Afternoon in English—Bemidji and Little Falls Pastors to Aid

The Bethlehem Evangelical church, corner Main and Bluff, will celebrate its annual mission festival next Sunday, Oct. 19. There will be two services on that day.

The morning services will be at 10:30 o'clock in German. The afternoon services at 3 o'clock will be in English. Rev. Wm. Kampenkel of Bemidji and Rev. T. J. Herman of Little Falls will preach at these services. An offering will be taken for home and foreign missions.

The pastor of the church is Rev.
J. H. Hunge. He and the church members and friends of the church people to stay for both. Dinner will be prepared in the church at noon by the members of the Ladies' Aid society.

ABOUT LOVE AND MARRIAGE

Signs Reveal Something, but Fact Remains That We All Have to Take a Chance.

No man is ever really in love who can say so with all the ease, ardor and ecstasy of a stage lover. No man ever loved a woman just because she was good. The man who says pretty things to his wife all the time may have had lots of practice either before or since his marriage.

The husband who never gives his wife a decent word or a compliment would knock down any other man who would treat her in the same way.

The sincerest lovers are those who are tongue-tied, and don't know where to put their feet.

A man who seems very stupid in a crowd can often be extremely interesting in a dimly-lit, cozy corner with only one other person present.

There are two kinds of courage—the courage of the limelight, which prompts a nice young man in white ducks to jump overboard after a girl's handkerchief, and the real courage that makes a man face the horrors of a fashionable wedding, the torture of meeting the bills of a housekeeping apartment, and the agonies of walking the floor all night with a baby. The two are seldom coupled in one young man.

The first wife of a widower never was such an angel as she seems to him after his second marriage.

A man is like a piece of cloth—warranted to wash—and matrimony is the laundry. It may improve him, give him starch and freshen him up, or it may take all the color out of him. You have to take the chances.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Dizziness Causes Fall--Head Injured

"A year ago my stomach bloated so badly with gas that I fell unconscious and cut my head badly on corner of door. I had suffered from stomach trouble for several years and no medicine helped me to speak of. A druggist patched up my head and advised me to use May's Wond-

The results have been really won-of my former symptoms since." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practiailments, including appendicitis.

GOOSE PITTMAN DEMONSTRATED HOW HE COULD HIT WALTER JOHNSON'S CURVES

Walter Johnson, Who Throws Remarkably Fast Ball.

Louis Lamer, who played independent ball in California after leaving college and might have been in the big league had he not decided that he preferred to settle down in Los Angeles and make more money at something else, sends this one as the funniest thing he ever saw in a ball game, and it must have been a sidesplitter at that:

"Walter Johnson came out to southern California after the 1910 season closed in the East and was engaged to pitch for an independent team at Santa Ana. The manager of the team Johnson was with looked our ball club for a game and we were all wondering if we would be able to get a foul of Johnson, who was at top notch form.

Pittman Was a Character.
"On our team was a player we called Goose Pittman, who was quite a character. He talked about what he could do and just how he could hit Johnson's speed. He had it all figured out.
"Johnson put over the first two strikes on Goose so fast he did not

Two Ring Battles On for Thanksgiving

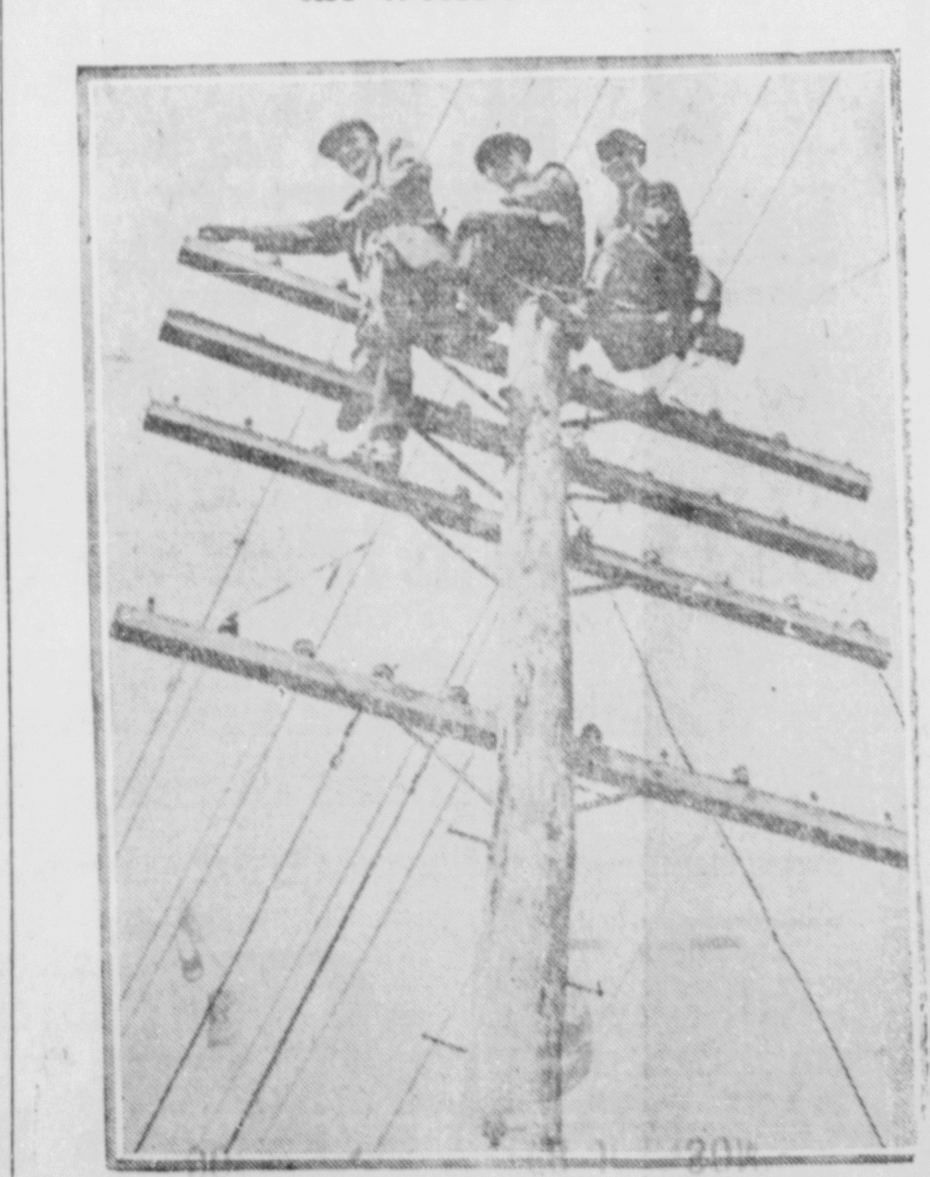

(By United Press)
New York, Oct. 14—Two big championship fights have practically been arranged for Thanksgiving Day.

Benny Leonard, world's light weight champion will meet Lew Tendler, the Philadelphia light weight in a fifteen round, no-decision bout at New Haven. Pete Herman bantam champion will meet either Pal Moore or Joe Lynch at New Orleans.

The Leonard-Tendler mill has the promise of being one of the season's best battles. The Quaker light weight, despite the whipping he received from Willie Jackson has everything that brands him as a real candidate for the crown worn by Billy Gibson's champion. Tendler has been yelping for a fight for months and so thoroughly convinced the fans of his sincerity that they made a demand for a chance for the

Not Bothered by the High Cost of Tickets for the World's Series

It's pretty tough to miss a world's series game, especially when it is being played in your home city. This photograph, taken in Chicago, shows how several boys solved the high cost of baseball problems.

CIGARETTES

Sleepy City boy that Gibson couldn't turn down.

Pete Herman wants to get back into the good graces of the fans who have been panning him of late. He has agreed to fight anyone on Turkey Day that his manager will sign up. He'll take either Pal Moore, of Jimmy Wilde fame or Joe Lynch, the New York flash. Rather than have two aspiring little fellows run the risk of broken limbs in the rush after the match he suggests that Moore and Lynch get together about Oct. 20 in some ring, and decide who gets to put on the gloves for the crack at the championship.

Fans who saw that go between Lynch and the champion at New Haven were almost one in declaring that the New York boy made the southerner look foolish. Herman retained his championship by running away, they claimed. If Lynch and the little Pete do get together in a bout of reasonable length, the following of the Gotham scrapper will lay odds that their idol will bring home the crown.

Character and Work.
Raphano's works are free from personal accessories; it is only by a peculiar glamour over everything by his hand that we are led to exclaim: "Raphano painted this!" We never enjoy a work of Michelangelo with the same immunity. A low voice seems to whisper out of each one of them: "I am the work of Michelangelo," and out through his character can the way be found to any correct interpretation. This breathes also from Dante's verse—Herman Grimm.

THIN PEOPLE NEED MORE IRON IN THE BLOOD

New Form of Liquid Iron Feeds the Tissues through the Blood—Builds Firm Flesh —Fills out the Hollows

Appearances count for a lot in this world, and if you are thin and scrawny and "below weight," you can't help but feel sensitive and envious of your neighbor who is plump and sturdy and who looks well nourished.

But there is another side—thin people are usually sick people. The food they eat does not give them the proper nourishment—or perhaps they are extremely nervous. The blood does not make strength and nerve and flesh as it does in the normal person.

It is a remarkable characteristic of Acid Iron Mineral—the new natural form of soluble iron—that it is a great flesh builder. Thin people who take it find after a short time that the hollows are filling out, that the flesh becomes firm and healthy, that even within so short a space as a single month, a becoming plumpness and soft curved lines of beauty have replaced angles and scrawniness.

And with this increased weight comes a better appetite, more refreshing sleep and a marked increase in vigor in every way.

Thin people can take Acid Iron Mineral to improve their appearance, and they will find their health benefited at the same time. Physicians say that this power to build new tissues and firm flesh is due to the extraordinary attraction the blood has for this particular combination of iron.

Druggists refund the purchase price if you fail to get the result you seek.
